

City of Venice

MRMCC – April 8th, 2016

Current and Proposed Development

- VGRC
 - Discharges stormwater into a tributary of the Myakka River.
 - 1377 Units total
 - 275 Units to build out
- The Villages of Venice
 - Will discharge stormwater into a tributary of the Myakka River
 - 263 units
 - Property rezoned, not yet submitted for Preliminary Plat review

There are no developments, current or proposed within the MRP Zone

Green Initiatives

- In-house street sweeping program which sweeps 4 times per week throughout the year
 - 2014 this program removed 472 lbs. of Nitrogen and 302 lbs. of Phosphorous
- The City has adopted the Sarasota County fertilizer ordinance
- The City has a pet waste ordinance under Section 10-8.
- Active education campaign for Stormwater.
 - Storm inlet markers, educational brochure mailers, newsletter articles, HOA presentations, contractor and employee training, online Stormwater survey and website links to NPDES information
- Undertaken numerous water quality capital improvement projects
 - Outfall 1&2 Project, Flamingo Ditch & Deertown Gully, Venice Ave. Drainage

